TRAINING

" 15. Action was initiated on a new program designed to identify and train in a broad and comprehensive fashion at the mid-point in their careers those employees having demonstrated potential for future executive and managerial roles. The training will be formal in nature and consistent with the potential of the individuals as well as the Agency's needs. The Mid-Career Training Program may include specialists as well as those selected for more general responsibilities. It is designed to teach participants what they need to know about other CIA components, other U.S. Government Agencies, and foreign and domestic political factors affecting U.S. Government policies and actions.
